“ When I was 2, I lived with Aunt Madge & Uncle Jack while my Mom went to school in OKC. The 5 of them took great loving care of me. When I was 14, I went on vacation with Madge, Jeannie & Kenna visiting NM & CO. So fun! When I was 15 I stayed 2 weeks with Jeannie & Kenna & Jeannie trusted me to drive her to work & back & I had never driven before. And of course I shopped til we dropped with her. I feel blessed that she called me last month & it was so good to talk to her. My heart breaks for Jo, Kenna and McKenney. RIP Jeannie. Love you all.

“ Jeannie was a truly special person. She always found time to check in on myself and the kids after my mother passed. I loved listening to her stories. She always found a way to put humor in any situation. :) Such a kind, sweet ,caring soul. I will forever be grateful for her kindness and the love that she showed towards others.
