Jeff owned and operated Davis Sinclair for twenty-seven years and also worked for the City of Pauls Valley for five years as shop supervisor. “ Just hearing of the passing of Jeff. He was a long time Ada friend of mine as our mother's were friends when we were very small. Although I haven't seen him in many years, there would be no struggle to find conversation. Jeff was always upbeat and positive and had a wonderful & unique spirit. My condolences to his wife & family.

“ Ronda, children and family:

Jeff and I first met when we were in the same second grade class and we remained classmates until graduation from highschool. He was loved by everyone, and respected by our teachers and coaches because of his contagious smile, congenial personality and willingness to help anyone who needed it. We would say, "just a really good guy".

Jeff, Ronda and I were able to catch up a few years ago when he came to Ada. We snapped some pictures, shared stories about our kids and I especially loved hearing about how proud he was of his family. He will be remembered as a genuine friend with an electric smile and I was fortunate to have known him. May God wrap his arms around you all and fill your hearts with His peace and comfort.

My love and deepest sympathies.

“ The first time I saw Jeff was when I pulled in to Sinclair's for the first time to get some gas. This man, who looked like a crazed rodeo clown - overalls, handkerchief doo-rag - came racing across the lot and with a maniacal yell flung himself across the hood and windshield of the late model Lincoln Continental at the pump beside me causing the two white-haired ladies to throw up their hands and scream in terror. In shock, I prepared to get out of the car and do something (I don't know what) to intervene but then the little old ladies' shrieks of terror turned to laughter and I realized that this must not be something out of the ordinary! But, Jeff could never be called ordinary. And his precious, sweet wife is anything but ordinary as well. The world has lost a wonderful, kind, wise and very funny man. Heaven is surely rejoicing in his arrival though! There just aren't adequate words to sum up the sorrow I feel for his family. I pray that they will feel the peace that passes all understanding as they cope with his loss.

“ To the Davis Family, especially Kyle and Leslie, our prayers go out to you during this time. We only had the privilege of meeting your father on a couple of occasions, but during your time at ECU it was communicated to us how much he meant to each of you. He had a lot to be proud of in his children. We wish you the very best and know that our prayers go out to you and your family.

“ To the family of Jeff Davis, Ronda, Kyle, Leslie and Cody I am sadden this afternoon when I read of the Passing of my great friend and neighbor. You have been blessed to have a man like Jeff. My Sympathy, love and prayers are with you all, you will all have many happy memories to share with each other in the future. God Bless you all.

Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around. People come into our lives for a reason, a season, or a lifetime. Jeff was that person.

Love lives on forever in each memory and thought of those who've shared our lives and all the happiness they've brought.

Love lives on forever, it will never fade away. For, in our hearts, our loved ones are with us every day.

May the love of friends and family give you comfort in this difficult time.

“ Jeff was a wonderful person who loved and cared about his family, friends and the people of Pauls Valley. The feelings were returned by those people. He was a fixture on Ash Street for many years. He helped out many people, He helped out my son when he was in need and was first to volunteer to be a Pallbearer at his funeral. Rhonda , you and the kids are in my thoughts and prayers. .I feel lucky to be able to be able to call Jeff my friend. Brenda Rolan
