JEREMY ALLAN DODGE

Jeremy Allan Dodge of Elmore City was born to Mark and Carla (Crull) Dodge on February 20, 1984 in Houston, Texas and went home to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on May 24, 2008 at the age of 24 years.

Jeremy grew up in Elmore City and loved playing baseball as a child. He graduated from Elmore City High School in 2002 and then attended Tulsa Welding School where he became a certified Master Welder. Using his welding skills to assist in the building of the Elmore City Fair Barn was a special way he was able to help his community . Jeremy was a member of the First Baptist Church of Elmore

City and it was there he came to accept Christ as his Savior in a revival held in March of 1997.

Times that were spent with family and friends were the best times in life for him. He will always be remembered by those who loved him for his infectious gift of laughter and humor in the face of the his health challenges. He lived his life in a way that reminded others to take nothing for granted and make the most of every moment. He always set the example of denying himself self pity although he encountered continual situations throughout his lifetime of health problems that could have easily caused one to feel sorry for themselves. This resulted in a source of great strength to those who were family, friends, caregivers or pastors. He made a difference in the world by making others smile.

Jeremy is survived by:

His parents: Mark and Carla Dodge

Sister: Heather Dodge

Grandparents: Carl & Lora Crull

Bob Dodge

Great-grandmother: Opal Dodge

Niece: Makinzi Dodge

Nephew: Kaleb Williams

Numerous aunts, uncles and cousins whom he loved very much.

Services to celebrate Jeremy's life are scheduled for Wednesday, May 28, 2008 at 10:00 a.m. at the First Baptist Church in Elmore City with Dr. Bruce Mc Cray officiating. Interment will follow in Foster

Cemetery under the direction of Wooster Funeral Home. Mike Johnson, Matt Maness, Thomas Slack, Dennis Maness, Michael Roady and Keith Cooper will serve as pallbearers.

“ Mark,Carla,Heather,& family were sorry for your loss Jeremy was a very special boy, even before he was born, and we want to thank you for letting us share in his life as a small boy, we will never forget him, with his bright shining smile,laughter, I'm as big as the bigger boys attitude ,and his bright red hair.
he is loved by so many, as you are, we will keep your family in our prayers for strength, to take one day at a time, know we are here if you need anything or just to talk,
