“ Jamie & Theresa, my heart goes out to you in this difficult time. I got to meet Jeremy briefly this semester in government class, and while I did not know him very well, it was easy to see what a funny and kind person he was. I do not pretend to know what you are going through, but I know the Lord provides a peace that surpasses all understanding. Thinking and praying for you. May the Lord bless you and keep you.

“ Jeremy was a remarkable young man, he was kind and loving to all he met. I did not have the privilege to know him real well personally but loved knowing there was a caring, protective young man watching over "our girls". I know he left a beautiful impact on so many others that we love. I am so sorry for your loss and pray for your comfort as you move forward. Love ya April Dawn##imported-begin##april##imported-end##

“ Stephanie,

Words do not seem like enough to express how sorry I am for your loss. I remember when our boys were playing peewee baseball so many years ago. I was just talking to Colten about Jeremy and he said "Yeah, Mom, he was a really good guy." He was a great kid, Stephanie. So sorry.##imported-begin##Shelby

“ Steph and Judy,
I can't fathom the heartbreak you're going through. Jeremy was a great kid. I always had fun with him. He's one of the most inquisitive kids I've ever been around. I'd never seen a 6 year old get a new watch and read the directions before using it. It made me laugh and proud at the same time.
I'm so sorry he's not with you anymore. Praying for God's strength for your family right now and in the future. Love you both,

I never had the privilege of knowing your Grandson, but judging from his photo & kind words written about him, anyone would have been proud to claim him. It is understandable that he, the "Cream Of The Crop" might be chosen for the Master's heavenly bouquet. There is peace to be found knowing we can trust our loved ones into the arms of the Heavenly Father. My deepest sympathy to each of you.###imported-begin##Carlene (Kittrell) McCaskill###imported-end##

“ *Stephanie, Jaycob and I are so sorry for your loss, Jeremy was an amazing young man that was loved by so many.. You did an awesome job momma, he had the same crazy care free attitude that you do and not to mention that beautiful smile. It's hard for any of us to understand why things happen the way they do, but I know he is in a beautiful place and he had two bright smiling faces waiting to greet him when he got there.
