“ I am so very sorry to hear about the loss of Jerry. He was my second cousin and I loved him dearly. So glad that he came to the reunion in August. God took a very special angel home when he called Jerry to join his parents and his son. May God wrap His loving arms around his family.

*Love,
Deborah Barnes Dean*

“ Jerry was a great person, when he met my wife Sue and my daughters he may them felt like he had known them for ever. The girls were so excited when he was showing them how to rope and let them ride Blue at the reunion. I was hoping to see him this summer when we traveled to Texas sadly the trip didn't happen. Are thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Jim and Sue

“ Jerry was one of my husband's best friends and we shared much laughter together. I always think of him and his little Yorkie who was his constant companion. Jerry is someone I would call "a good man". I will miss having him in our lives. Rest in Peace my friend.

“He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.”

I know Jason and my grandma were there to welcome him home. What a wonderful reunion he is having. So much love and respect we have for this wonderful man. He did so much for me and my family, but mostly he always showed how much he cared. I have so many memories as a child and into adulthood where he was such a positive influence. I still have a photo of him holding my first born and having the biggest smile on his face. You will be terribly missed, Barney. 💔

“Jerry Barnes was a man like no other. There are so many words to describe him....kind, generous, caring, unselfish and the list could go on and on. Oh how he loved his granddaughters, Kinley and Lainey! And of course his daughter and son! He also loved his little Yorkies, they were his other little loves that he treated like his “special” little children. There are so many things and memories of Jerry that I could literally write a book. He was the kindest and most giving person I have ever known. A heart as big as Texas! He is loved by many and will be missed....RIP in peace Barney
