“ I will always remember Uncle Jerry as a caring, smiling, kind, funny and good person. He was always there for my mom and us when I was young, helping us when we needed it the most. Whenever my mom needed someone, Uncle Jerry would show up. He never complained as he fixed our car or while driving our rental truck as we moved across the country. Joking and laughing with Uncle Jerry was one of my favorite things to do. I wish I could have seen him more these past few years. I know he is at peace now, laughing and hanging out with Donna Kay, and I look forward to being with him in Heaven.##imported-begin##Pamela Gersbach##imported-end##
