“ Shannon,

We want you to know that we have been thinking of you. We regret that we were unable to be at your dad's service.

Please accept our sincere sympathy at this time of loss. We know that no one can ever be truly prepared to give up a beloved parent and, now, you have had to give up both of yours.

You have devoted time, attention and much love to your parents. Surely, you have been a comfort to them over the years and, no doubt, you have made a positive difference to your father's last years, months and days on earth.

May God be with you, comfort you, bless you and give you peace.

Our sympathy,

Joe and Carolyn Thompson
