“ I remember in the mid 60’s Jimmie taking some of us kids down south to his daddy’s farm to hoe Cotten one summer. He used a hoe that’s normally used to mix concrete by hand- it probably weighed 8-10 lbs, and Jimmie could take out a large weed in one stroke. He had a strong mind and back too. He didn’t meet many strangers, and was always quick to pass on a word of wisdom to us kids. It didn’t make any difference if we had asked for it or not if he thought we needed it, and most of the time we did. We just didn’t know it at the time 😂. He always giggled after lining us out. But we loved and respected Jimmie. He was great with kids, especially during the little league baseball season. He really enjoyed working with us, and kept us on our toes. “To live is to die- to die is gain”. I suppose God will have him greeting the saints just any day now. Thanks for your service Jimmie, whether for God or country, you did good! 🙏🇺🇸 Glen Fox
