JIMMY RAY ROBINSON

Jimmy Ray Robinson of Elmore City, OK passed away Sunday, May 26, 2013 at Lindsay Manor Nursing Home. Jimmy Ray was born to the late William Robert and Eula Lois Elizabeth (Townsend) Robinson in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma on April 18, 1937.

He grew up in Wynnewood, and Pauls Valley attending Pauls Valley Public Schools until 8th grade. He quit school to help his parents provide for the family. He loved his brothers and sisters very much and had a special love for his mother. No stranger to hard work he harvested broomcorn and chopped cotton and was later employed by the City of Wynnewood caring for the cemetery. Jimmy Ray was also employed as a derrick hand working for Shebester Inc. He was paralyzed due to injuries but did not allow that life-altering incident to change his strong will to never complain while always offering others a warm welcoming smile.

Jimmy Ray was introduced to the love of his life Jora Vene Robinson by her father Grady Meadows. He thought Jimmy Ray was a nice young man she should date. This intuition must have been accurate because it led to the couple being married on June 13, 1955 in Duncan, Oklahoma. They enjoyed a marriage that separated them only by her death on December 24, 2012.

The couple raised their children in Elmore City. He taught his family by his example to put God first and family second. He taught them that life is not easy, but with strong faith anyone can make the best of it. His favorite scripture was 1 John 1. Jimmy Ray enjoyed bingo, going to the casino, raising coon hounds, coon hunting, traveling and was known as quite a “pool shark.” He was a smooth dancer and could twirl Jora Vene with the best.

Jimmy Ray leaves to mourn his passing.
