“ I was saddened to hear of an old friend's passing. Joe and I were great friends at Woodland, along with sisters, Shirley and Kay. We were neighbors down on Massey Creek, where I also got to know their Dad as well as brothers Manuel and Ray. Good, good folks and a tight-knit family. If Joe was your friend, you were one-up on everyone, of course I think Joe made everyone feel that way. I remember his fondness for RC Cola, we bonded and shared a couple of years of growing up while "throwing back" a few. He was a good kid thru and thru, and I'm sure, a good man as well. My condolences go out to Joe's family in dealing with the grief of the past two weeks. You will be in our prayers.

Joe had a case of RC cola beside his refrigerator when I went out there after learning of his passing he was my grandpa. He was everything you described about him, and more thank you.
