“ I just found Joe's obituary and even though it has been years since I have seen Joe he made a great pact on my life. He was just so kind to me. I still have the letters he wrote to me when I moved from Lindsay. He treated me with such respect and loyalty and it was just on the name of friendship. I was a freshman and I think he was a Sophomore. My first date was a double date. He was with Paula Pendagraph and I was with Danny Rutledge. We all laughed and sang until curfew. My father Fred Arnold was friends with Joe's dad and really good friends with Ann and Chock Dillard. Joe I pray for your family and while praying I will thank you for being my dear dear friend in high school . Lindsay lost a mighty good man. “ Nancy, Dwight, Carrie, and family.....I was so sorry to hear about Joe...I will miss that clown...God broke the mold when he made Joe...he was always good to help Mom after Dad died...her money was no good with him...he had such a wonderful sense of humor....unique, but wonderful...know that you aren't carrying this burden alone...call if you need anything.....Joe would have been happy to see all his friend that showed up to pay their last respects...I will never forget that goofy giggle of his...he was a joy to know and work with....God Bless!
