

Johnny Aldon Lane

August 29, 1944 - November 26, 2025

Johnny Aldon Lane, age 81, passed from this life on November 26, 2025, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He was born on August 29, 1944, in Modesto, California, to Clarence Aldon Lane and Vinnie Mae (Cunningham) Lane. On May 23, 2008, Johnny married the love of his life, Glenda (Ring) Hoffman, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Together they built a life filled with love, partnership, and devotion to their blended family.

Johnny proudly served his country in the United States Army during the Vietnam War. His service was a point of deep pride throughout his life, and he carried the values of dedication, responsibility, and honor with him long after his time in uniform.

Following his military service, Johnny became a truck driver—a profession he embraced with the same strong work ethic that defined every part of who he was. Known for his dependability and determination, he was a hardworking man who approached each day with purpose.

Johnny enjoyed spending time outdoors, especially doing lawn work, building, and repairing anything that needed a skilled hand. He had a natural talent for fixing things and took pleasure in creating and improving the world around him.

Family was at the center of Johnny's heart. He loved them deeply and endlessly, always concerned for their well-being and eager to help in any way he could. His grandchildren held a special place in his life, and he cherished every moment spent with them.

Johnny will be remembered as a proud veteran, a devoted husband and family man, and someone whose kindness, loyalty, and steady presence made life brighter for those who knew and loved him. He lived a full and meaningful life, surrounded by the people he cared for most.

Johnny is survived by his wife, Glenda Hoffman, of the home in Wynnewood, Oklahoma; Daughter, Adele Anderson and husband Larry Cotman of Wynnewood, Oklahoma; Sister, Nancy Brown of Utah; Grandchildren, Amy Fields and husband Jimmie Boucher of Wynnewood, Oklahoma, Michael Anderson and wife Stephanie Hanks of Wynnewood, Oklahoma; Great-grandchildren, Kasey Fields, Katelynn Fields, Maverick Anderson, of Wynnewood, Oklahoma; and a host of other friends and family.

Johnny was preceded in death by his parents, Clarence Aldon Lane and Vinnie Mae (Cunningham) Lane.
