“ From the first time I met her.. I loved her and even more she loved me and I never doubted it for a minute. She was the sweetest, kindest, gentle spirit with a ton of love to give even though her heart had already taken more than its share of pain and loss. She was a fighter and survivor and she maintained her dignity and grace throughout all of the trials of her life. I'm proud to come from such a strong, loving, wise, beautiful woman with such a huge heart that everyone blessed to have known her knew she genuinely cared for them. I will never forget my first sip of her red Koolaid on the day she introduced me to my brother Eric... I knew he was my brother before she told me... Just like I now know they are together again watching us all grow stronger through our own struggles. Until we meet again~ I love you. Please keep us in your heart until we are in your arms. Respectfully, Amy Jo, Connor Joseph, and Samuel Eric Milan

If flowers grow in heaven, Lord, then pick a bunch for me. Then place them in my mamaws arms and tell her there from me. Tell her that I love and miss her and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for awhile. R.I.P Mamaw. I'll miss everyday until we meet again
