

Juanita Watkins

November 22, 1927 - August 6, 2012

Juanita Watkins was born to Joe Hill and Edna Graham Hill on November 22, 1927, at Eldorado, Oklahoma. She grew up at Fittstown and Sulphur, Oklahoma, and had been a resident of Maysville from 1951 until she moved to the Wadley Nursing Home in Purcell in 2011. She passed from this life on August 6, 2012, in Purcell, Oklahoma.

Juanita married Hayes Watkins in Ada, Oklahoma, on June 5, 1947. She was married to him until his death in August, 2003. There was one child born to the marriage, a son, Jim Watkins. She started her working life as a waitress in the Artesian Hotel in Sulphur. She later worked at several cafes, including the City Grill and the White Kitchen in Maysville.

She was predeceased by three brothers, one sister, and her husband, Hayes. She is survived by her son, Jim and wife Joy Watkins of Oklahoma City, a granddaughter, Elise and husband Brett Harkey of Fort Collins, Colorado, a grandson, Nick and wife Lesley Watkins of Edmond, a grandson Kane Watkins of Edmond, and five great-grandchildren.

She is also survived by the many friends who took the time to visit with her, call her, and look after her after the death of her husband. She treasured them all.

Funeral services are scheduled for Thursday, August 9, 2012 at 10:00 a.m. in the Abundant Love Fellowship Church in Maysville, Oklahoma with Rev. Danny Gamble officiating. Interment will be in the Maysville, Cemetery under the direction of Wooster Funeral Home. You may send a condolence to the
