No words can ever express the feelings I had for this precious woman!...She took me in when we were working together as kids at the A & W drive-in...in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma....I lived with her and her Mom and Dad!...They treated me so very good!....Even though Judy was one year younger than me, I was always the little sister!....She taught me how to drive, she showed me what real love is!...I can't wait to see her again someday in glorius heaven!...We will have so much fun!...I love you so much, Jude!

“ Judy Markum was a mother to me. I cannot express how much I loved her and I know she loved me back. Every time she saw me, her face would light up and she would smile and tell me I was beautiful. What a wonderful lady God placed in my life. I will ever be thankful. Joy Byrd

“ Judy was another mother to me. I have many memories of her and can still hear her laugh and see her smile. Great lady who will be missed.
