“ What a blessing to know Judy! As we talked of her today...Gail, Sammy, LD, Nancy, Madison, Max and I all said, “Judy's smile!” Such a cheerful spirt and beautiful smile that made her eyes sparkle. You always felt special when you talked with Judy.

Praying that memories bring joy during this sad time.

When my mother was expecting me she decided if I was a girl she was going to name me Judy because she thought Judy Helvey and Judy Goff were the two cutest and sweetest little girls she had ever seen.
She was right. I have always been so happy to know that I was named for two such beautiful ladies. RIP dear Judy Pickard.

I worked with Judy for 11 years at Farm Credit in Pauls Valley in the 80's and 90's. She was such a sweetheart and we have kept in contact since then. She has called me every year on my birthday. I talked to her in May of this year and if I make it to my birthday this next May I will be saddened to not hear her voice. Prayers for the girls and grandchildren that she loved so much.
