“ Aunt Kathyrene was the youngest of my mother, Christena Mae Morris Southard's, sisters. She was very young when my mom married and went to California. When she came back for a visit, Aunt Kathyrene said she didn't have a sister Christena. When we were visiting Grandma Morris one summer, Uncle Don was gone working and Aunt Kathyrene was by herself. There were tornado warnings all around us and Aunt Kathyrene brought Patty and Pete down and we slept on pallets on the living room floor. There were many happy memories of Aunt Kathyrene, the last of the Morris sisters. She will be missed.

“To Don, Pete and family. So sorry to read about the loss of your sweet Kathyrene. Such a wonderful woman to not only the family, but to all the little Brownies and Girl Scouts too that her life encircled. A devoted woman to Christ, to little Brownies, to Girl Scouts, and to Pat's friend who was invited to spend many overnights and days with Pat and the family. How blessed I have been to know such a loving and caring woman who shared her whole family with me. For this I am forever grateful and have never forgotten. God continue to be with you all now and forever until we all meet again in glory! Love to you all.
