“ My kids and I Loved going to Aunt Kaye’s House, you were guaranteed to be opened with a sweet smile and a warm hug. When she met my daughter, her great great niece, I think she was even more proud than I was! She sure will be missed!

“ What can I say about Kaye - she was a second grandma to my kids. She worked with my dad and kept him straight - she kept a smile in her heart - but she could set you straight if you were stepping on her. I have so many memories of cookouts, birthday parties, hassling her at work. I remember how much she loved the boys and Diane. She was a great mom, a great grandma a great woman and most of all a great Christian. She will ever be missed - but my heart says her last breath of earth was painful - her first breath in heaven was beautifully, blissfully pain free and full of awe. I bet she's up there giving Bill the what for.. and probably had a word for Dad and Jon as well. Missing you. Karen

“ Kaye was the best mother in law. She and I spent a lot of time at garage sales and talking. She was a lot of fun and the strongest woman I know. I will miss her greatly. I love her like my mom.
