Kimberly's joy in life was in taking care of others. She spent most of her life working as an in home health care and personal care provider to others who needed her assistance in order to be able to stay in their homes in their later years. Kimberly was always kind and gentle and brought a ray of sunshine into the lives of everyone who came under her care. She was truly dedicated to serving others rather than herself, a rare and special gift in this world today. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Services for cremation were under the direction of Wooster Funeral Home No funeral services are planned at this time.

“ Kim was my first cousin once removed. We played together often as children. I have vivid memories of pink and white dresses with white leotards for Easter Sunday, hunting eggs across the street from my grandma’s house in an empty field that now contains I-44. In our teen years we wore bell bottoms and cropped tees, played with “clackers,” had sleepovers. She introduced me to rock music via the Doobie Brothers. She had a large German shepherd named Cocheese that she was crazy about. She adored horses. She was an all-American girl. Rest in Peace, Kimbo. ❤️

“ Kim was my first cousin once removed. Her childhood home was in the same neighborhood as my grandparent’s home so we got to play together often during childhood. I have vivid memories of pink and white dresses with white leotards for Easter Sunday, and later bell bottom jeans and cropped tees during our teen years. Kim introduced me to rock music via the Doobie Brothers’ “Black Water” on her small record player in her room. She loved horses. She loved her mom and dad so much. I was happy to be able to send her some old photos of her father a couple of years before her passing. I hope they brought her comfort. Will miss you, Kimbo. ❤️

“ I’ll dearly miss her coming over for Thanksgiving. She’d come over every single year. She’d tell everyone stories, make us laugh, help us cook, and anything to put a smile on our faces. Kim was kind towards everyone, and I hope everyone treated her well. She’s in a much better place now, and she’s dearly missed here.
