“ Sister Hale was a very sweet lady. I remember her from when they were pastors at First Assembly of God in Maysville. She could preached the word! Sister Hale was a joy to be around. Laughed alot. She is walking on streets of gold. Singing and dancing. May God grant the family peace through this time.

“ Well we knew she wanted it but it has finally arrived: her hime going. Larettia was a friend to a young 22 year old pastor at the Baptist church: ME. She was my counselor, prayer partner, encourager and mentor. She attracted the needy, disenfranchised, burdened and rejected folk. When she prayed Jesus was there. She had that smile that just drew you into her inner circle. She loved the gospel. She showed up in 2005 at a church in OKC when I was being considered as a new pastor. She testified about me and helped secure that ministry for me. It was a total surprise and I do not know to this day how she knew about it or why she came that way. She was always led by the Spirit. She preached the gospel. She was good. None better. I'm sad to be gone out of state this week on mission. She would approve. She's not here anymore! She's with Jesus.
