

Larry Lon Hoffman

July 26, 1960 - November 19, 2023

Larry Lon Hoffman was born on July 26, 1960 to Jimmie Lon Hoffman and Sue Yvonne Hoffman (Graves) in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma. Larry passed away on November 19, 2023 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma at the age of 63 years old.

Larry loved playing with his cousins when he was younger and loved collecting truck and cars, and watching Andy Griffith. Larry went to Oliver Hodge in Moore, Oklahoma until he was eighteen. After school he loved picking up cans, mowing yards, and volunteering at the work activity center in Moore, Oklahoma. Some highlights of his life included going and putting everyone in the neighborhoods trash cans out on trash day and he loved planting his mom's rose garden. His family also has memories of him helping a lady in the neighborhood when she would lock herself out of her house, Larry would help her get it unlocked. Larry was very organized and that showed true when Larry and his father Jimmie built Larry's shed from the ground up and he loved going out there. He loved birdfeeders and had many at their home that he kept full at all time and when he became wheelchair bound he watched continued to watch the birds.

Larry is survived by his parents; Jimmie Lon Hoffman and Sue Yvonne Hoffman (Graves) of the home, Nieces; Amanda Gomez and Jeff of Lindsay, Oklahoma; Bonnie Carroll and Andrew of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, nephews; Jeremy Harper of Moore, Oklahoma; Jimmy Gentry and Joanna of Hennepin, Oklahoma, and a host of great nieces, nephews, and other family members.

Larry is preceded in death by his brother, Terry Don Gentry; sister, Brenda Jo Burton; and nieces Amber Burton and Brenda Lee Kordis.
