

LaVerne Anderson Garrido

October 15, 1915 - October 11, 2011

LaVerne Anderson Garrido was born to Noah Esau and Della Isabell (McGill) Godwin in Hot Springs, Arkansas on October 15, 1915 and passed away on Tuesday, October 11, 2011 at the age of 95 years.

LaVerne spent her childhood days in Arkansas and attended school in Hot Springs, Arkansas. She married Charles H. "Andy" Anderson on June 19, 1937 in Hot Springs, Arkansas. The couple moved to Pauls Valley in 1952 and went into business on McClure Street. They owned and operated Andy's Dental Lab where she worked until his retirement. She was employed as a nurse for many years at the N. H. Lindsey Memorial Hospital and later worked as an office nurse for Dr. Don Meinders and Dr. Kim Jones. One of the things in which she took great pride was being a good nurse and taking the best care she could of patients. LaVerne was preceded in death by her husband Andy Anderson. LaVerne Anderson and Armando Garrido were married August 7, 1997.

LaVerne is survived by:

Husband: Armando Garrido of the home

Son: Carroll Jay Anderson and his wife, Linda of Pauls Valley

Grandchildren: Laura Anderson; Jonathan Anderson and his wife, Allison

Great-grandsons: Andrew "Andy" Anderson and Brody Anderson

Great-granddaughter: Grayson Anderson

Serving as honorary pallbearers will be Dr. Don Meinders, Dr. Kim Jones, and Trent Plummer. Memorial may be made to Liberty Baptist Church.

“ I am sorry we didn't get the information about the visitation and funeral service, we would have been there. We really enjoyed our last visit with her and Uncle Bing, but haven't heard from them in awhile now. We will keep you in our prayers, we know she will be missed.##imported-begin##Charlotte McClory##imported-end##
