

Leo R. Nesmith

March 25, 1926 - October 7, 2007

Leo R. Nesmith of Elmore City, Oklahoma was born to Oliver Virgil and Celia Cordelia (Smith) Nesmith on March 25, 1926 in Lindsay, Oklahoma. Leo had seven sisters and two brothers. He was born again at the age of 38.

Leo grew up and attended school at Elmore City and Katie, Oklahoma. He went into the U. S. Army at age 18, serving most of his time in Italy. He was discharged at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

Leo and Wanda were married in Amarillo, Texas and made their home in Elmore City. As a young man, Leo worked in the oil fields, later going to work for the State of Oklahoma, retiring in 1997.

Leo always had a love for horses. Even as a small child, he rode a horse before he walked. Although he worked, he also broke and trained quarter horses.

Leo was a quiet man. If he ever told you he would do something, you could count on him to do so. Leo passed from this life on October 7, 2007. He is taking the greatest journey he will ever take.
