

Leticia Lara

July 23, 1980 - September 7, 2021

Leticia Ann (Balbantin) Lara was born on July 23, 1980 in Oklahoma City to Pablo and Joyce (Keeler) Balbantin. Leticia was married to Ramiro Lara on October 30, 1995. To this union came Ramiro Jr, Liliana and Angelica.

Leticia graduated from Capital Hill High School.

She loved life and tried to enjoy her time here on earth to the fullest and loved to attend a good concert. Leticia had a very special group of friends, Amanda Balbantin, Leslie Funderburk and Jennifer Nobel-White, also known as her “heifers”. You never knew what kind of trouble her and her “heifers” could get into. As a young girl, her favorite thing to do was to pester her little brother, PJ. Leticia was always fond of the idea that she was so much bigger than her (big) brother, Nathan.

Leticia is survived by:

Son, Ramiro Jr of the home

Daughter, Angelica of the home

Parents, Pablo and Joyce Balbantin

Brothers, Pablo Balbantin, Jr and wife Amanda, Nathan Perez and wife Leslie

Maternal Grandmother, Ruthie Keeler

Along with many nieces and nephews, aunts and uncles and cousins and many close friends.

Leticia is preceded in death by:

The love of her life, Ramiro Lara, a very special princess daughter, Liliana Lara

Maternal Grandfather, Edward Keeler

Paternal grandparents, Pablo Balbantin and Santa Espinoza
