

Lewis Thrash Jr.

September 25, 1959 - August 8, 2024

Lewis Thrash, Jr. of Tatums, Oklahoma was born on September 25, 1959, in Davis, Oklahoma to Lewis and Perfelthia (Hooks) Thrash Sr. He had 5 sisters and 2 brothers. Lewis accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Bethel Baptist Church.

Lewis attended school in Tatums until it was consolidated with Fox where he played football. Lewis made his home in Tatums and took courses in auto mechanics. Lewis was a “Jack of All Trades,” from electric to auto mechanics, he could do it all. Lewis met the love of his life, Resheedia Nero McGee and they were married on December 31, 1990, in Tatums, Oklahoma. Lewis and Sheua were married for over 34 years. Together they raised a son Bryan Lewis Thrash. Some of Lewis’ favorite sayings were Together, Together, and Front and not behind. Lewis enjoyed fishing, hunting, landscaping, renovations, and cooking. He was a wonderful grill master. He loved to eat his snacks and cakes. The highlights of his life were his wonderful family, his loving wife, children, grandchildren, and one great-grandchild. Lewis taught others how to work hard, independent and true to who you are and be your own person. He will be missed by many.

Preceding him in death were:
