

Lloyd Wayne Robbins

March 20, 1947 - November 2, 2021

Lloyd Wayne Robbins was born to C.M. "Rob" Robbins, and C. Ruth Robbins on March 20, 1947, and passed from this life on November 2, 2021 in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma at the age of 74 years. .

Lloyd explored many paths during his life. After graduating from Pauls Valley high school, Lloyd married his high school sweetheart, Gayle Dacus. Together they made their home in Houston, Texas and later Pauls Valley, Oklahoma. He went on to be an Oklahoma Highway patrolman, of which he was very proud. He also spent several years as a draftsman, then as a truck driver while living in Houston Texas. After moving with his family back to Pauls Valley, Lloyd spent the rest of his years working at the Garvin County Community Living Center. There he met several lifelong friends, both in the clients and the employees. After retirement, Lloyd further explored many of his artistic hobbies including, drawing, painting, photography, and what many of us consider his greatest skill, knife making. He also played the guitar, owning a beautiful Gibson, and passed down his love for music to his children. As a lifelong sportsman, he also passed down his love of hunting and fishing. Lloyd had a great understanding of guns, various game, and the tradition of being an honest sportsman. Lloyd's family was immersed in sports of every kind. From baseball, football, basketball, softball, cheer, and drill team, Lloyd himself, his children, his grandchildren, and even great grandchildren have continued the families athletic traditions. After Gayle's passing in 2014, Lloyd was lucky enough to have had two loves in his life. Glenda, an old school friend, came into his life in 2015 and became inseparable companions. She took great care of him in his final days. Lloyd had a lot of life wisdom he was always more than willing to share. It was said he never met a stranger. Lloyd had a very close relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ that really came to fruition in his later years. He loved his church, he loved reading and discussing the Bible. It's because of this his family does not mourn as those who have no hope, as the Bible says, so we celebrate a life lived in full. Lloyd ran his race faithfully and now he has received his reward.

“ Lloyd was my first boyfriend. His dad did sock hops and Lloyd took me to one. I was in 3rd grade as I remember. He was always special to me. My prayers go out to Glenda and family. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Uncle Lloyd was one of the first people I ever knew in this life, and his smile and humor and earnestness always made me feel at home. He never let a visit go by without telling me he changed my diaper, so don't give him any sass. He would tell me that well into my 50s! I loved him and he loved me and Im gonna miss his random texts and advice that usually calmed me down but sometimes riled me up! That's real family and I wouldn't change it. For Angie, Christie, Justin, Glenda and Chad and Devin and the rest, I hope y'all find comfort in that he lives on in all y'all and all of us who knew him. He is in your eyes and your smile and your words for the rest of your days! Think of him often and celebrate those memories. Talk to him in your heart and know he's there.

“ Angela, Christi and Justin I offer our love and condolences on your loss ,but Lloyds love for you all will always be with you he was so ornery at times but so gentle and caring when it mattered most how many hot summer weekends we spent sitting in the sun losing our minds over baseball and he kind of kept it even keeled. May God bless you and comfort you in these coming days.

Love you all David ,Debbie , Alisa ,Aaron George
