

Loranzy Ray Aldridge

January 17, 1926 - November 26, 2008

Loranzy Ray Aldridge of Elmore City, Oklahoma was born to L. L. (Bill) and Georgia Glee (Austin) Aldridge on January 17, 1926 in Wagoner, Oklahoma and passed from this life on November 26, 2008 at his home at the age of 82 years.

Ray graduated from Okay High School in Okay, Oklahoma in 1944. During World War II, Ray served his country as a medic and participated in the liberation of Buchanwald in Germany. In 1948, he made his home in Elmore City, Oklahoma. He was a pipefitter and retired from Kerr McGee in Wynnewood, Oklahoma. Ray was a member of the Church of Christ in Elmore City for over 60 years where he served as a teacher, song leader and Elder. Ray was preceded in death by his wife of 48 years, Iris. On July 7, 1999, he married Marie Oller in Tecumseh, Oklahoma. In his spare time he enjoyed farming, traveling, and singing gospel music. The most important things Ray taught others about life were to do the best with whatever you had and put others first.
