Lucille Emma Miller

Lucille Emma Miller was born March 25, 1923 in Porum, Oklahoma to Otto H. and Cynthia T. (Bedford) Dorris. She ended her earthly journey on Thursday, February 21, 2008 at the age of 84 years.

Lucille married the love of her life, Donald L. Miller on August 7, 1940 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. They lived in Oklahoma City until 1954 when they moved to the farm at Banner, Oklahoma a small community near El Reno. After retiring from the farm, they moved to Paoli in 1985.

At the time of her passing, she called the Pauls Valley Health Care Facility home. She was loved and cared for by the wonderful staff there the last five years.

Lucille is survived by one son, Donald G. Miller of Mustang; two daughters, Reba Dunham and her husband Michael of Paoli; Linda Sea bolt and her husband Mike of Paoli; three brothers, William (Bill) Dorris and his wife Floydeana of OKC; Willard Dorris and his wife Leatha of OKC and Eugene Dorris of Eufaula, OK; three sister-in-laws, Dessie Miller of OKC; Lorene Thomas of Canadian, OK; Anna Barnes of Sun City, TX; many nieces and nephews, and the pride of her life, 18 grandchildren and 38 great grandchildren.

Lucille was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Don in 1998; her daughter-in-law Elizabeth Miller, two brothers, O.J. and Clayton Dorris; and her parents.

Lucille loved the Lord and was a member of the First Baptist Church in Paoli, where she attended faithfully while her health allowed. Lucille enjoyed being a homemaker. She and Don always had a garden and she loved to cook for her family. Friends, neighbors and family made her life complete. She'd say, "I don't need to be a member of any club."
