

Lyndal Lawrence

December 22, 1950 - April 12, 2012

Lyndal Lawrence was born in Ada, Oklahoma on December 22, 1950 to Odie and Imogene Lawrence who attending college there. The family moved to Santa Clara, California soon thereafter where Lyndal attended kindergarten . His father retired from the Air Force and the family moved back to Wynnewood, Oklahoma, and Lyndal attended Wynnewood School until he graduated. He attended college at East Central State College in Ada, and later transferred to Oklahoma University where he received his Pharmacy degree.

After graduation, he worked for Dee Barton Drug in Pauls Valley for a while, and then he and a friend went to Fort Smith, Arkansas and worked at the Sparks Regional Medical Center until he came home for Christmas one year, and was hired by the Pauls Valley Hospital as a Pharmacist. He worked at the Hospital for 36 years until his retirement in 2011. He was happy to work there with Zinda Coffey and many others. He loved people and it was a very pleasant place for him to work.

Lyndal was a music lover. He played lead guitar for a Country and Western band during his College years. It helped to pay for his tuition and other college costs. He also loved to fish. He and a friend spent many hours on the Oklahoma lakes, looking for the big one. He could excel at anything that he tried. After his passion for fishing subsided, he took up golf. Fred Garrett tells that Lyndal could beat he and his brother Lowell, both of whom had been golfing for a longer time.

Lyndal was member of the Church of Christ in Wynnewood. Although his college activities and his work kept him from regular attendance, he maintained his relationship with his Lord.

He is survived by his mother, Imogene and two brothers, Larry of Albuquerque, New Mexico and Louis of the home in Wynnewood.

He was preceded in death by his father, Odie and one brother, Lowell, his grandparents, M.E. and Pearl Lawrence of Wynnewood and Joel and Ada Sweat of Elmore City.

“ I also worked at the PVGH pharmacy in the late 80's and early 90's. Lyndal was always such a kind and sweet man. He touched so many lives, and the world is a better place because of him. He will be missed by so many.##imported-begin##Ginger (Garrett) Davis##imported-end##

“ What a wonderful person and friend to all he met. I too worked with Lyndal at PVGH he was the first to be a friend to me as an outsider. He was always so kind, had a funny story to tell or a hug to give. The angels are rejoicing as he entered in the presence of Jesus. He will be missed by all who knew him.##imported-begin##Brenda Winters##imported-end##

“ I worked with Lyndal at PVGH for many years and thought of him as a dear friend. He had a smile that could light up the darkest of rooms. I cannot think of an instant when Lyndal made a negative comment. He was a loyal and true friend and I am sure will be missed by all that knew him. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.##imported-begin##Judy (Irwin) Weaver##imported-end##
