“ I apologize for the belated condolences for your family, however, I'd be remiss if I didn't express to you how great a guy I found Lynn to be. I did business w/ him at the dealership on a couple of occasions & ran into him from time-to-time or just stopped by to say hello & have a chat w/ him. He's still the contact photo for the dealership in my phone because he was such a great asset to them. He was kind to me & plain spoken in our dealings & expressed a great enthusiasm for life & for building relationships w/ folks. I know he is missed by me & my family.

*Respectfully & Sincerely,
Rob Underwood*

“ Sorry to hear about Lynn's death. He was a good man and Tornado Watcher. I remember everyone coming to the house when the sirens went off. Every Fireman and Civil Defense worker on the east end of town was at our storm shelter (Lindsey's). We played while the men ran around the house looking at the clouds.

“ Sorry to hear about your loss. I remember when he was in that car wreck and broke his leg really bad. He was wild at times but was a good father and friend of the family. He will be missed.

“ To Lynn's family,

With sympathy to each of you. The years have past, but Lynn's personality to be socially expressive and humorous are memories that never faded, but your memories of Lynn will be most precious and forever everlasting. The heavens opened and Lynn ascended into one of our Father's many mansions. Lynn is now one of our lovely angels watching over us.

Peace be with you.

“ Lynn was always kind and gregarious and full of life. He was a good friend and he cared deeply for people. If he could help you he would and he didn't mind. He fought the good fight. Loved deeply and laughed often. Heaven won a new soldier and the stars shine a little brighter with his presence. May his family find comfort in his memories and know that he changed those that he knew. Prayers for you all.

“ We purchased two cars from Lynn at Reynolds and he was always so helpful and did everything he could to assure our satisfaction. Whenever I would run into him around town I always got a big hug and we talked for a few minutes. Sure will miss his smiling face.
