

Margaret J. Blankenship

November 12, 1935 - February 12, 2012

Margaret J. Blankenship of Elmore City, Oklahoma was born to Richard Andrew and Nellie Eunice (Echols) Chappell on November 12, 1935 in Broken Bow, Oklahoma and passed from this life at her home near Elmore City, Oklahoma at the age of 76 years.

Margaret grew up in Broken Bow, Oklahoma, attending school there and as fate would have it, in her teenage years, her father and mother moved to the Elmore City area. That is when she met Harold. Even though the family moved back to Broken Bow, Harold followed them and brought Margaret back and on July 18, 1953, they were married. They loved and raised two children and had a farm together for fifty years.

Margaret worked as a restaurant cook for Jim and Wanda McCaskill and Carroll and Ann Martin. In the early years, she also went to work for the DHS as a caretaker. She enjoyed taking care of her ladies, they were a big part of her life. But her greatest love was her husband, Harold and her children, Deborah and Timothy. She took great pride in her home and kept it perfect.
