“ My Love, as your birthday draws closer, my heart still hurts me so. My mind says it's all a dream, my eyes look for you ,seeing beautiful images of the man I will forever love. Oh Mark you taught me well that love is more than saying. Our chairs where we sat , I often glance and start to ask you a question, I can hear you say 'Google It'. I would call you TURD HACK. Where do you come up with these words you'd say as you gave me that little boy grin. And then you would give me the answer. Everyday I wake with you on my mind and each night I fall asleep with you clutching your pillow to my heart. I love you forever and always,, till I lie next to you once again under our broken tree. Your Nean

“ My sincere condolences to the family for the loss of your dear loved one. May you find comfort and hope from the Bible promise at Isaiah 25:8 that in the near future God (Psalms 83:18) will eliminate forever, death and the sufferings that it brings. So draw close to God in prayers and lean on Him as you cope during this most difficult time.

“ Mark, "the Rat" was a good friend and hard worker! We spent alot of time together back in our younger days hauling hay and cutting broom corn. Later we worked together in the Dallas area and he used to love to come over to our place and eat whatever Joni cooked up. He was a fun guy and good person. We are sorry for the loss of Mark and our prayers are with the family. Rest in peace dear friend.

“ Hello Jeannean, and all of you who knew and loved Mark. I can't begin to verbalize the sorrow I feel for your loss and for mine. Mark Radtke was a friend of mine. All the more unusual, since he was older, but that didn't matter to Mark. That was one of his special gifts. He could care less what other folks thought once he decided you were a friend. And he was always there for you if truly needed. I didn't see much of him after we both left EC. Not nearly as much as I would have liked. Every time we did communicate throughout the years, we picked up right when we'd left off last, like we lived next door and might have have dinner tomorrow evening. I'm very proud to have been able to call Mark Radtke a friend. I look forward to seeing him on the other side. May God ease the burden of those grieving Mark, while He enjoys Mark's company in Heaven!

“ Mark touched my life with so much wisdom, and Instilled so much confidence. Even though my career is over now, his words continue to echo in my daily life. Once you got passed his gruff exterior, the man had a heart of gold, and truly cared about his people. You will be missed Mark, and NEVER forgotten. Till we see each other again with our Lord Jesus, Rest, and know we are coming home soon.
