“ *The video of Mary is beautiful! Mary was a cherished cousin with whom I get up in Garvin County Oklahoma. I have many fond memories of our youth, especially her enjoyment of going for rides in my 1950 Ford, where we roller coasted over "thrill hills" between Elmore City and Paul's Valley. I would enjoy hearing her scream with fear...,
Someday, I hope to visit her spirit in the wonderful place God has prepared for those who believe in his son, Jesus as our Saviour.
Mary is in a better place now.....*

“ The memorial video is beautiful! Mary had a big heart and loved her family deeply. She was a cousin with whom I had a lot of fun growing up. She loved to go for thrill rides in my 1950 Ford over "thrill hills" between Elmore City and Paul's Valley....I can remember her screams as we dipped like a roller coaster on the short hills in the road. I remember many great meals with her at their old home place, where Aunt Dovie always had something good to eat.....fried chicken, gravy, wonderful pies and cakes!! I would pester Mary until she got really mad at me. I was fortunate to visit Mary just a day before she departed, and thank God that we had that one last visit on this earth. I will miss Mary, but hope to meet her spirit in the wonderful place God has prepared for those who believe in his son as our Saviour!
