

Mel Joyner

January 1, 1964 - January 17, 2023

Mel Joyner of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, formerly of Wynnewood, was born to Jimmy Dewayne and Mary Kathleen (Moyers) Joyner in Lewisville, Texas and passed from this life on January 17, 2023, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma at the age of 59 years.

Mel grew up and attended school at Wynnewood, Oklahoma, graduating in 1982. He then attended East Central University. His childhood days he spent hunting, fishing, and riding dirt bikes. Mel loved chasing his sister, Jeniece, with a bull whip to “see how fast she could run”. On September 13, 2008, Mel married Tammie Richardson in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma. Mel worked at the Walmart DC, General Construction in Lindsay, Oklahoma, and the Wynnewood Refinery. In 2018, Mel retired due to cancer. He attended the House Church in Pauls Valley. In his spare time, Mel loved to fish, sit back on his porch, and shoot squirrels, sitting in his golf cart under the shade tree talking with his friend Dave who was generally on his golf cart. He loved OU football. Mel loved spending time with his dog, Baker Mayfield Joyner. It was special for him and Tammie to hang out and watch the 6 o'clock news and Wheel of Fortune together. He taught others to live life to the fullest, be kind, but don't let others take advantage of that.

Mr. Joyner is survived by his wife, Tammie Joyner of the home; parents: Jimmy Dewayne and Mary Kathleen (Moyers) Joyner; Mother-In-Law: Debra Phillips; sons: Josh Joyner of Ponca City, Oklahoma; Jesse Joyner and wife Taryn of Pauls Valley, Oklahoma; Tyler Groves and wife Alicia of Pauls Valley,

Oklahoma; Daughter: Erin Groves of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; three grandchildren: Stagger Lee Gilleland of Wynnewood, Oklahoma; Madison Groves of Pauls Valley, Oklahoma; Evie Groves of Pauls Valley, Oklahoma; Sister: Jeniece Tate of Pauls Valley, Oklahoma; Nephews: Cooper Tate and Carter Tate.

Funeral services are scheduled for 10:00 a.m., Monday, January 23, 2023, at the House church with Pastor Brandon Henry officiating. Interment will be in the Oaklawn Cemetery in Wynnewood, Oklahoma under the direction of Wooster Funeral Home. “ Went to school with Mel for 9 years. He was one of nicest guys in our class. Such a sweet demeanor. He was actually my first boyfriend and my first kiss. Lord that was in 5th grade. He was an awesome trumpet player and loved band. We all went to church together and just have so many good memories of he and his family. My heart is sad that he is gone. I'm sorry for his beautiful wife who it was obvious he adored. Kay, Jim and Jeniece and all his children and grandbabies my heart goes out to you. Fly high Mel. You were a great friend during our younger years. Wish we could have stayed in contact. Fly high. 🙏🙏🙏
