“ Michael is the love of my life. My best friend, my protector the one that I can count on. He was always in a happy mood even early in the morning, I couldn't stand how happy he was in the morning I was never a morning person. he could light up a room and have it laughing and make any event fun. He gave me the best thing ever besides his love and that was our son Tyler. I can see Mike in him. The pain I feel is more than I can bare alone. I will miss your smile your laugh and the love you give to me unconditionally. you will forever be in my heart and on my mind you will never be far from me. even death can not keep us apart. LOVE YOU FOR EVER.

“ Mike was one of the best men and one of the best friends I’ve ever had the pleasure of knowing. He was one of a kind, God made him and broke the mold. Mike and I spent a good majority of our young adult lives together and he created a lot of memories for me that will live on in my mind forever. Mike exemplified honesty, sincerity and had a kind heart. He would give you the shirt off his back with out you even asking for it, and he was there whenever you needed him. He was a true friend and I will miss him terribly. My sincerest condolences and prayers to family and friends. I know you’re in a better place brother and I hope that everyone takes some comfort in that.
