“ Dear Rebecca and Daughters:
My heart goes out for your loss. I know that a big hole has been left in your heart that will never go away, but will eventually grow smaller with time. I cannot say that I imagine what you are feeling because for each of you, that hurt is different. Many say it is an emotional hurt, but it is a hurt that is real. At this point in time, words are nice, but they do not fill the void or take away the pain. I do pray that someday, that real pain you are feeling will decrease and you will begin to live your life as normal as it can be, without the loved one you care so deeply about. I pray that you are comforted by the fact that so many people care for you and love your family! You are rich in deed, you have a close and loving family and that will help you get through this tragedy. Each and everyone of us have fond memories of Rosendo and those memories will keep him alive in our hearts. I feel that I have been blessed to have known him, and all of you, and seen the love a family can have for each other. You do know that we are only a phone call away, if there is anything we can ever do to help. Our prayers are with you. I love you!###imported-begin##Theresa Salazar and Family###imported-end##
