“ One of my best memories is meeting Aunt Mildred and to get to visit with this wonderful lady that I have the pleasure of calling Aunt! My father had many many wondefful stories to tell, and I am very blessed to have got to not only hear the stories but meet this wonderful woman. Im sad to say, my husband and I never got back out to Oaklahoma to visit and bring my parents and our children but they do know who she is and how strong of a woman she was, and what a great Mother she was. My dad thinks of her as his sister, because to him, she was. Our thoughts, hearts, and prayers are with you all in the coming days and weeks. We love you! Love Uncle Sammy and Aunt Roxanna Wright, Cousin Thersa and Tony, Tiffany, and Todd Weisman.
