“ I only met Molly once, but we sat and talked like we'd known each other awhile. I could tell pretty easily how much she loved her family. I pray for a time of wonderful memories for those that knew her best.

“ Zeta, Sindy, Craig and Corey
I am so sorry for the loss of your Mother. Molly was a wonderful person! So giving, loving and caring ot all others. She was an inspiration as I remember first meeting her, and thinking how old is this lady who is putting her own roof on her house?! I just knew I wanted to be able to do that too when I reached her age! I think she must have been 60ish! Molly never had a bad word to speak of anyone, she was a special lady. Even though, I know it was time for her to go, I will miss Mama Molly, Rest in Peace. Love to all, Tonja.
