“ Some of my fondest memories involve the Busey/Abrams family. Much of my childhood was spent with Rusty, Bobby, Terry Lynn, David and Jim. Naman was one of the nicest men that I ever had the honor to know. Always had a smile on his face and was eager to help out anyone in any way. The Round-up club years will always be a memory that I cherish and his is the first face that pops into my head when I think about them. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. It is a sad time, but the memories will always bring a smile. Everyone will miss him, but he will be waiting for you all on the other side.

My heart hurts for you Deanna, and all of his family.

“ I remember going on a trip with my son Michael to get hog feed out and check his hunting cameras and such and I asked him who makes these paths for you guys .? It looked mowed down and clear and he told me at age 90 naaman was out with his tractor clearing spots for his guys so they can hunt. I was amazed at how hard of a worker he was. And at every birth and birthday and surgery my grandkids had he was there. Even to my son's grandpa's funeral. He was so loving and thoughtful and sharp as a tack. Cowboyed up and looking smashing. Gonna miss seeing his smiling face.
