“ As I drove home this afternoon, admiring the sunset, I thought of the beautiful words the minister said yesterday at your Mom's service and his recognition of her love of sunsets. A love I must also admit to sharing.
Driving down yesterday, I thought of all the great memories which seem now oh so long ago - the chickens you raised and butchered, the wonderful smells of something cooking in the kitchen, your mom's laugh and just what a great life we grew up with. I miss the "good ole days" and cherish the many memories we have together.

I heard a woman in Border's today telling the cashier she had just lost her mother and that people, though meaning well, were not sympathetic because her mom had lived a full, long life and was in her 80's. This seemed all too familiar because I had thought of it yesterday. No matter the age, we always miss our parents and the many memories and the wonderful security blanket they exude no matter their age. I know you will miss this in the coming weeks especially the holiday season. Just know that we too are remembering with you the many great times we all had and will be also saddened during this holiday season - our thoughts will be with you.

Love you all, love the upbringing we were blessed with and will hold you in our prayers!

“ Geary and Glenna,
Your mom's services today were so lovely and such a nice tribute. I know you will feel lost without her to care for, but you both should find joy in the fact that you were able to take care of her in her last years! You did a wonderful job and she appreciated you two so much. I imagine she would tell you both to go forward now and get busy on your own lives... and to enjoy not only your love together but also to pause from time to time and enjoy a beautiful sunset ... those sunsets are one of God's most wonderful tapestries, and never prettier than when viewed over Tabletop Mountains! That's something she knew and something all of us hold in our hearts, too!

I can't remember my growing up years without remembering the two of you, and it doesn't seem that long ago, does it? I'm thinking of and praying for all of you...may God bless and keep you during this difficult time!
