“ It was a freezing night with sleet coming down, some 50 years ago when my cousin Judy Tomlinson Johnson called me at my home in Pauls Valley at 3:00 AM and asked if I would go meet the bus from California to pick up a friend of hers as she had only gotten as far as Kent's Restaurant on Highway 29. I hurried there, but the bus had already dropped off its two passengers from California to the closed grocery store that was then the bus stop and gone on its way. The two were Nellie and her baby daughter Lisa, both of whom were freezing. I brought them home with me and that began our friendship. I remember how happy she was when she met Red and later when they made their family. I didn't get to see much of her after we stopped working, but thought of her often. She was a loving person and a fine lady. My condolences to her family,
