

Noah Glen "Wig" Graves

November 4, 1919 - November 7, 2010

Noah Glen "Wig" Graves of Wynnewood, Oklahoma was born on November 04, 1919 in Elmore City, Oklahoma to George Houston and Eula Alma (Burton) Graves and passed from this life on Sunday, November 07, 2010 in Sulphur, Oklahoma at the age of 91 years. Glen attended school at Elmore City. He liked to ride horses, especially in parades, to attend rodeos, and to play dominoes. The highlight of his life was being surrounded by 4 generations of nieces and nephews. He enjoyed entertaining them with his antics and was always prepared to do something to make them laugh. The most important thing Glen taught others about life was to be patient, kind, and humble. The ability to earn the love of children is a special gift, and "Uncle Wig" as his nieces and nephews knew him possessed that ability in spades. He is loved dearly by all of his family and will be sorely missed.

Leaving behind to cherish his memory are:

Sister: Cleta McCann of Wynnewood, Oklahoma

Nephews: Don Graves of Norman, Oklahoma; and Ron and Mike McCann

Nieces: Joyce Key of Davis, Oklahoma; Sue Hoffman and Carol Gore of Moore, Oklahoma; Donna Stubblefield of Elmore City, Oklahoma and Beverly Nelms of Newcastle, Oklahoma

Numerous great nieces and great nephews

Glen was preceded in death by his parents George and Eula Graves; brother Roy Graves; and three nephews; Dewayne, L.G. "Pete", and Ray Graves.

“ Sorry to hear of Wigs passing. That generation is about gone. I remember Uncle George, Roy, and Wig quiet well. Wig was my Dad's cousin.
