“ Mema I only had the chance to meet you a few times, but they were great eating chinese food laughing at all my swearing. My favorite was they way you smiled when you looked at all your daughter and her kids with such love and happiness. I will love your babies as you watch over all this craziness we do. Dance all Bubbles I love that name haha. You will be missed down here but I know you living it up all over again in you new adventure.

“ Oletha ( Bubbles ) is what I always called her we started 1grade together a Jackson Hill we learned to roll skate together a Joe's . We went ever where together her boyfriend Jerry and my boyfriend Bobby were great friends .we told each other everything We stayed friends for many years then drifted apart as you do. But I have always said she was my best friend always. I'm so sorry that we didn't keep in touch but I thought of her often I hated to her of her passing .But I know she is in no more pain and she had loved ones to welcome her home to be with Lord . R I P Bubbles I see you again . I'm so sorry for the family and her children I will keep you in my prayers. Linda Hunter

“ Mema was an amazing lively lady who just made me laugh. I have the pleasure of being friends with her Daughter Amber and her beautiful granddaughters Trystn Aubree Addy and Kimba. I only spend a little time with her laughing and eating chinese food, but her memory and love I saw in her eyes for her family will never leave my heart. Mema I will look after all your babies and make them smile and laugh as much as possible. Party on baby dance sing and watch over all the crazy we got going on. Till we meet again
