

Pamela Joy Ogden

April 6, 1957 - October 16, 2024

Pamela Joy Ogden was born on April 06, 1957 in Los Angeles, California to George & Shirley Lienhard and passed away in her home in Paoli, Oklahoma on October 16, 2024 in the loving care of her family.

Pamela grew up in Eagle Rock, a suburb of Los Angeles. On September 13, 1975 in Las Vegas, Nevada, she married Charles E. Ogden. Pamela attended Rose State College and worked as a store manager for Kentucky Fried Chicken. She actively participated in her church while living in California and also in North Carolina. Pamela enjoyed reading, Dungeons & Dragons and real life L.A.R.P.ing (live action role playing). She and Charles logged many miles and travel adventures early in their marriage while he was driving a truck across the nation with their family in tow. One of the highlights she experienced was living in Dubai. The most important thing she taught others was how to love and give to others.

Pamela's surviving family include:

Daughters – Crystal Smith, Darlene Holt and Cassandra Winders

Brother – Wayne Lienhard

Sister – Vicky Lienhard

9 Grandchildren 1 Great-Grandchild

Pamela is preceded in death by her husband Charles E. Ogden and her parents George and Shirley Lienhard.

“ Pam and I go way back. We met at my first job K.F.C. I want to say it was in 1986 and she quickly became my best friend. She's the one who introduced me to my husband. Her and her family became my second family. I will truly miss you Pam. You already know how much I love you without me even saying it.
