

Patricia Dale White

February 4, 1943 - February 8, 2024

Patricia Dale (Nedry) White was born on February 4th, 1943 in Bastrop County, TX to William Emerson Nedry and Ola Lee (Cherry) Nedry. She passed away on February 8th, 2024 at her home in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma. Patricia grew up in Corpus Christi, TX and graduated from WB Ray High School two grades ahead of her class. She met and married James Donald Lewis and they had two children, Lisa and Bart. They pipelined as a family for years traveling all over the United States, and in 1971 they decided to stay put and made their home in Healdton, OK. Pat was a mother, homemaker, and later opened her dress shop, The Klothes Kloset. She later went to work at Halliburton in Healdton and then Duncan where after 25 years of service she retired. She met and married Paul White and they made their home on his ranch in Seminole, OK. After Paul's passing, she moved to Lake Texoma and then Pauls Valley. She loved riding around the neighborhood on her golf cart visiting one and all. She was the Gladys Kravitz of the neighborhood. She loved her Bebe and family and was always there for help, support, advice, and love.

She was preceded in death by her parents William and Ola Nedry, her birth mother Kathleen Elizabeth (Hogan) Turrentine and her husband, Paul White. She is survived by her four-legged baby Bebe; her daughter Lisa Dillard and husband Terry; Son Bart Lewis and wife Tammy; grandchildren Taylor Miller and husband Cody, Jessica, JD and Will Lewis, Joe Harris and children, Wayne Harris and family; great grandchildren Emerson and Hayes Miller, numerous nieces and nephews and cousins, her Hogan and Cogburn families, the Koffee Krewe Ladies, and best friend Marita Johnson. In Lieu of flowers, please donate to your local animal shelter or PAWS in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma.
