Paula “Sue” Parker, our beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister and aunt passed away February 17, 2017 at the age of 73 surrounded by her loving family. Sue was born September 17, 1943 in Wynnewood, Oklahoma to Lillian Pauline (Hicks) and Lannie Olen Warren. She was the 5th of 14 children born to Pauline and Olen. Sue attended Woodland School and graduated in 1961. On January 9, 1964, she married the love of her life, Dewey Douglas Parker, in Ardmore, Oklahoma. They recently celebrated 53 years of marriage. Sue worked hard all her life at many different jobs but most enjoyed being a nurse’s aide, a home health provider and a homemaker. She enjoyed being with her family, traveling and camping. Sue loved to go on trips, especially with her kids and grandkids, her “sister” trips and adventures with Dewey, Judy and Roy. She loved celebrating all holidays but her favorites were Christmas and Easter. She was of Baptist faith and attended Antioch Missionary Baptist Church.

“ This is my older sister and we have had lots of fun memories over the years. I guess my favorite memories are the holidays when all of us sisters would get together.
