

Paul Thomas Denson

June 13, 1926 - July 31, 2010

Paul Thomas Denson was born to Robbie and Elsie (Fry) Denson on June 3, 1926 in Lindsay, Oklahoma and entered into eternal life on July 31, 2010 in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma at the age of 84 years.

As a child, Mr. Denson grew up on the family farm in the Rush Creek Valley. He was called to serve his country in the U.S. Army during WW II and was in the Phillipines toward late 1944. Paul had to quit school to serve in the military and was awarded an honorary diploma from the Pauls Valley school system in 2003. Paul met his wife Lamois through mutual friends in 1950. They were married on October 9, 1951 and were married for fifty-eight years prior to her passing on July 22, 2009. Paul and Lamois had three children and the last daughter, Sherry was deceased in infancy. Paul worked as an operator at the Wynnewood Refinery from 1955 until 1988 and was a lifetime resident of Garvin County. Mr. Denson enjoyed farming and his family. The thing he loved most was his ranching. He also loved to take his wife dancing and was known to be a good dancer. He had a special affection for his only grandchild, Kristen.

Mr. Denson is survived by:

2 Daughters: Paula Denson Tower and Mike Tower of Elmore City, OK
Robbie Beck and Ben Finch of Pauls Valley, OK

1 Sister: Maxine Weller of Chickasha, OK

1 Grandchild: Kristen Beck

Mr. Denson is preceded in death by:

His Wife: Lamois Dean Denson

1 Daughter: Sherry Denson
