“ Peggy was such a great Women and Friend to many. We always enjoyed seeing her at Valley Express. She would call in burgers , she would name off the guys and what they wanted and at the end she would say " and Peggy wants a Hamburger with everything on it" lol , I always loved that! My father (Lanny) was also friends with Peggy, he also did work for her. She will be greatly missed! Rest in Peace friend

“ Her Garvin County Community Living Center family have many fond memories of Peggy. She was a wonderful employee who was both kind and helpful with the individuals she worked with at the group home. She was loved by those men who lived in her home, but also by the full group of clients. She was fun on trips and outings, danced with clients at parties, and genuinely enjoyed her time with the group. We have missed her and pray she will rest in peace.
