“ Peggy and Homer were fast friends. We first visited them at the farm. I am hazy on whether they still lived out or had moved to town. We were there with a church group. As we got to know them (it didn't take long), our appreciation of them grew individually and as a couple. I was on session with Peggy and loved talking to Homer. Such outstanding people separately and so strong together. We were privileged to know them and count them as friends.

“ Ms Peggy was always so sweet and wonderful and loved the Lord. One of my fondest memories is her Pimeto cheese spread. Loved it. Also going to Branson for shopping. She will be missed but she is now with the Lord and Homer. Penny Stuart
