

Phyllis Summers

February 8, 1937 - August 20, 2013

Phyllis (Miller) Summers was born February 8, 1937 to E. M. (Mance) Miller and Anna Bell (Seawright) Miller at Bray, Oklahoma.

She attended the Bray Public Schools for twelve years and then she went to Oklahoma College for Women at Chickasha, Oklahoma receiving her B.S. degree in 1959.

That fall she started her teaching career at Vanoss Public School, teaching Vocational Home Economics. There she met the love of her life, Eugene Summers. She taught for three years and their oldest daughter (Gina) was born in August 1962.

In October they moved to Pauls Valley, where two more daughters (Sherry 1965 & Cathy 1967) were added to the family.

She was active in her church and community activities. She served two terms as PTA president of Jefferson Schools, one two year term as treasurer of the Garvin County Extension Homemakers Council.

One of her favorite activities was to cook at Falls Creek which she did for several years.

After her daughters were in school, she went to work as a teacher's aide at the Pauls Valley Junior High School, later the Middle School where she worked for twenty-two years.

Mrs. Summers died on August 20, 2013 after a courageous battle.
